In challenging times...
A story of hope and recovery?

Fear and exclusion of people with mental illness, 2000-2012

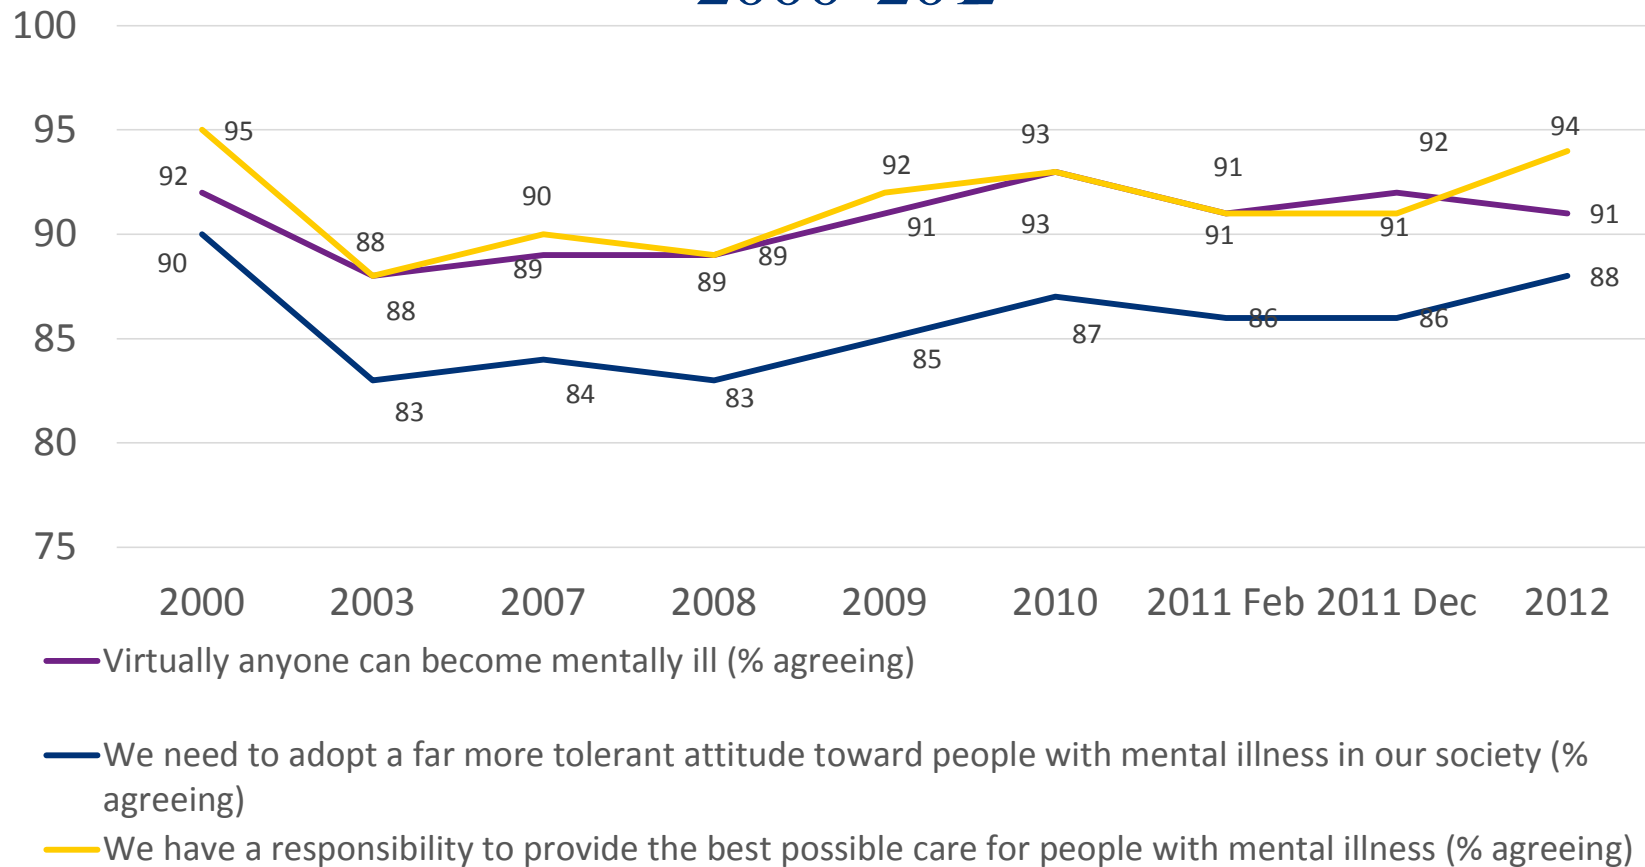

- Anyone with a history of mental problems should be excluded from taking public office (% agreeing)
- It is frightening to think of people with mental problems living in residential neighbourhoods (% agreeing)
- I would not want to live next door to someone who has been mentally ill (% agreeing)

Asda offered its "sincere apologies" for the offence it caused

Supermarket chain Asda has apologised and withdrawn a Halloween outfit it was selling online as a "mental patient fancy dress costume", after criticism.

The £20 item included clothing, fake blood, a mask and a fake meat cleaver.

I lost my dream job with Emirates because of depression

Laws against mental health discrimination don't apply to the 'world's best airline' – a cruel anomaly that must change

What can we learn for the future?

- Work together as a mental health community we can achieve
- It's all about people with lived experience
- Resilient leaders, organisations and networks
- A bold and more assertive ambition standing up for mental health
- Where we stand up for everyone included the most marginalised

We're Mind, the mental health charity.
We're here to make sure anyone with a mental health problem has somewhere to turn to for advice and support.

Thank you!
