Message for those participating in the IIMHL and IIDL Opening Plenary and IIMHL sub-plenaries:

In recognition of the wealth of experience, knowledge and perspectives that all leaders attending the IIMHL/IIDL Combined Meeting are bringing to this event, you are asked to come prepared to discuss what is happening in your own sphere of influence as it relates to each of the session topics. In particular, it will be helpful to reflect on solutions to challenges that you have faced in bringing about desired change.

Please be prepared to share highlights about your work with other leaders, as there will be ample time to do so during the sessions. We are hoping to create a reflective space in which to achieve an international exchange of ideas and promising practices.

Speakers will make brief presentations and table discussions will follow. Talking points suggested by the speakers will be available to prompt those discussions, which will then be developed by a facilitator into a dynamic conversation across the room.
